

Victoria Arion Male Choir

April 25, 2019

The Victoria Arion Male Choir requires an accompanist for the 2019-20 season.

The Victoria Arion Male Choir, Victoria's newest male choir, is looking for a collaborative pianist to become part of our artistic team. The choir, while only formed in the summer of 2018, has long roots in the Victoria musical scene dating back to 1900 and earlier as the Arion Male Voice Choir and the Victoria Male Voice Choir.

Under the musical direction of Alan Whitmore, our programming is eclectic, from the early masters to contemporary composers; from classical to folk arrangements, jazz, show tunes and more.

We are looking for a collaborative musician with:

- excellent performance and sight-reading skills
- the ability to read open score for "note learning" situations
- the ability to lead the occasional sectional rehearsal (teaching notes, etc.)
- a love of music-making in a supportive, friendly community choir setting

General Information

Term: September 1, 2019 - May 31, 2020 (with open-ended renewal upon review)

Time Commitment:

- Rehearsals: Monday evenings from 7:00 - 9:00 p.m.
- Concerts: Double concert at the conclusion of each term (4 concerts in total)
- Sing-out concerts: four 45 minute concerts annually at long term facilities/retirement homes

Remuneration:

- this is a fee-for-service position. Exact terms to be negotiated upon contract signing

Application Process

Supporting documentation: please send a brief letter of application outlining your interest and general qualifications to: musicdirector@vamc.ca

Application deadline: please send your application by May 31, 2019. Short-listing will take place in early June, with interview/auditions taking place before the end of June but will continue until the position is filled.
